FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

IN RE:
Carroll, Lisa Marie

CASE NO. 10-41182

DEBTOR(S)

CHAPTER 13

DEBTOR'S VOLUNTARY MOTION TO DISMISS
Notice

This motion seeks an order that may adversely affect you. If you oppose the motion, you should immediately contact the moving party to resolve the dispute. If you and the moving party cannot agree, you must file a response and send a copy to the moving party. You must file and serve your response within 21 days of the date this was served on you. Your response must state why the motion should not be granted. If you do not file a timely response, the relief may be granted without further notice to you. If you oppose the motion and have not reached an agreement, you must attend the hearing. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the court may consider evidence at the hearing and may decide the motion at the hearing. Represented parties should act through their attorney.

If a party requests emergency consideration, the court may act expeditiously on the matter. If the court allows a shorter response time than twenty (20) days, you must respond within that time. If the court sets an emergency hearing before the response time will expire, only attendance at the hearing is necessary to preserve your rights. If an emergency hearing is not set, you must respond before the response time expires.

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

COMES NOW, Debtor, Lisa Marie Carroll, in the above-referenced case by and through his attorney of record, John E. Smith, and would move this Court to dismiss this proceeding and would show the Court the following:

The Debtor no longer wishes to prosecute this Chapter 13 proceeding.

WHEREFORE, Premises Considered, Debtor prays that this case be dismissed.

Respectfully submitted,
